

Little Moscow

Mala Moskva

Maša, Olja, Irina and Andrej are our contemporaries. They each live their own unhappiness and hope for a better life. The family house called Little Moscow is the place that brings them together and reminds them of their shared past. But the true nature of that past and who they really are is revealed each time they meet and try to understand and help each other. Little Moscow by Croatian writer Tomislav Zajec is an inspired paraphrase of Chekhov's play Three Sisters, carved into the neurotic and dehumanised atmosphere of the modern world.
