

The Blankenberge Tapes, Episode 1

De Blankenberge Tapes

In 2013, 27-year old Hanna Rentmeester is murdered. Her boyfriend, Robert Josse, is the main suspect immediately, but he seems to have disappeared from the face of the earth. Only when a link is made with a murder case that took place ten years earlier, do the puzzle pieces slowly but surely fall into place. Puzzle pieces that seem to form one image, that of a grey coastal town in Belgium: Blankenberge.

In The Blankenberge Tapes, two murder cases and one case of puppy love come to a lurid conclusion on the Belgian coast. Detectives and people directly involved tell their side of the story in three episodes.

Submitting organisation: NPO
Contact: Ineke Woudenberg – ineke.woudenberg@npo.nl
Author: Tom Hofland, Pascal van Hulst
Director: Tom Hofland, Pascal van Hulst
Sound: Tom Hofland, Pascal van Hulst
Commissioning editor: Anton de Goede
Production Company: VPRO Radio
Co-producer: Room for film
Key staff: Johan Heldenbergh, Nyncke Beekhuizen, Abe Dijkman, Sterre van Sprundel (Cast)

Title of Series: De Blankenberge Tapes
Episode: 1 : 3
Length: 25 min
Original language: Dutch
First broadcast by: NPO Radio 1
Date of first broadcast: 5 May 2019, 22:00
Competing for: Best European Radio Fiction Series of the Year