

Laudator ROGER DE WECK

Best European TV Movie or Mini-Series of the Year

Personal believes are betrayed, the main character becomes a puppet in a political power play that gets out of control. Violence travels with the main characters from a war-torn country to a peaceful western society.

The winner in the TV Fiction Category Movie or Mini-Series lets the viewer follow Erling, a Norwegian special forces lieutenant, to the battlefields of Afghanistan and back home to his family. A precisely crafted original script for this 7 parts mini-series, perfectly executed and directed, takes the viewer on a journey into a world of lies, betrayal, mistrust and political games.

Let us see an excerpt of the winner of the PRIX EUROPA for the “Best European TV Movie or Mini-Series of the Year”:

The winner is: Nobel

submitted by NRK , Norway