One criterion of a good investigative story is that at least one party involved does not want the story to be told - because he or she has something to hide. That is surely the case in this year's winner of the Prix Europa.

An incredible story, hard to believe yet true. Told in a sober and at the same time humorous way. Very well researched. A David versus Goliath-story in the arena of the European Court. But it appears that David does not even know that he is in the arena.

Thanks to the work of the reporter a fraudulent court-case was stopped and European legislation was prevented to be changed on an erroneous base.
